BROWNSON ON "HIGHER LAW." Ovestes A. Brownson, the 'thunderer' of the Catholic Press, recently delivered an address in Milwuakie, Wisconsin, on a "Higher Law." Law," he did not believe in the right of priuale judgment, but that "THE CHURCH" must

"After claiming that the religious element is necessary to the preservation of Individuality; that without it Authority would become despotic, he turns round and demands that Individuality and Authority shall both bow the knee and be subject to the Moral Power; that the Church, which is an association of a part of the same individuals who compose the State, shall be acknowledged superior to both."

Commenting on this, the Pittsburg Dispatch ays: We can't bring ourselves to imagine that Browson believes what he says. But being, nominally, a Catholic, he is just disingenuous and hypocritical enough to subordinate his true opinions-opinions taught by sense and humanity to every true man-to a contemptible bug-bear called the infallibility of the Church. Now, look in what a position he places himself. Feeling, in his iumost heart, as every honest, thinking man feels, that the Fugitive Slave Law is a wrong enactment, and consequently not commanding his obedience, he abnegates his right to judge of it himself, and virtually says, "notwithstanding my utter hatred of this statue, notwithstanding I believe it to be contrary to the truth and the right, yet if Mother Church authoritively sanctions it as a proper, wise and just measure, I am bound to believe it to be such and obey its every provision to the letter." Brownson says all this because he wishes to be esteemed a good Catholic; but we doubt whether, if the church did endorse the Fugitive Law, his piety and devotion would outweigh his innate sense of right, and so far sear his better nature as to make a first rate slave-catcher out of him.

But there are thousands of Catholics who would do this, and even worse, if so bidden by the priests. Take away the right of private judgment and you make a tyranny. Constitute the Catholic church the chooser of men's opinions, and you make a bloody oligarchy that would destroy all that is good in society.

Bible Burning.

The recent case of Bible burning by Roman Cathlolics, at Cumminsville, Ohio, which has been generally reported in the papers, is thus commented upon by a Cincinnati paper:

"There is at our office a Bible which reminds us of the dark ages, not because of antiquity, not because it has been copied laboriously with the pen, as all books were a few centuries ago. Not because it is bound in boards and has an iron chain to it, like that which Luther found at Erfurth. No, it is one of the latest issues of the American Bible Society. But it is mutilated and partly burned by Romish bigots, who hate the truth as did the persecutors of the past; yea, they hate and fear God's Word in the living language of the people. The Bible agents had scattered this precious Word all over our country. The priests of ignorance and despotism were alarmed. They knew that if the Bible went shining through the land, their system would vanish like a vapor. Hence they throughout the county, let it be wafted by the instigated some of their most bigoted bondmen to burn the book. At Cumminsville only three miles from our city, the deed was done.'

A package of these Bibles, charred by the just received the largest and best selected flames, was recently returned to the American Bible Society, a suggestive testimony of the hatred of Rome to the reading of the Word of God by the people. And yet American citizens who raise their voices in condemnation of these TCF By reference to our advertising columns | Romish outrages, and band together to protect their Bibles, and their religion, and their liberties, against the insiduous assaults of the oathbound subjects of the Pope of Rome, are denounced by native political demagogues as "fanities," and "knaves and traitors," and ·midnight assassins." It is time for American people to wake up, for the minions of the Pope, who publicly burn our Bibles, would, if they had the power, as publicly burn every Protestant in the land, or, in the language of their own journals, "hang Protestants higher than any steeple."-Pittsburg Dispatch.

> ARREST ON A CHARGE OF ARSON-Astounding Development .- The Albany Transcript, noticing the arrest of a man named Davis, in New York city, on a charge of arson, says: "From developments made to us, it is pretty certain that he is the leader of a regularly organized band, who go about the country obtaining insurances on property claimed as theirs, which they destroy, and then obtain the insurance. Three cases of arson in this city, three in Renselaer county, and quite a number of others in New York city and elsewhere, have been traced to this party. Their plan of operations, exhibits, great cunning and knavery. Davis has, it is asserted, caused buildings to be erected and nearly completed, when, after obtaining insurance for furniture, which he said was in the building, but which was not, obtained heavy insurance on it, and then destroyed the building and afterwards obtained the full amount he was insured for. Two others, named Dobson and Thompson, are implicated with him in his nefarious operations. Dobson was arrested in N. York, one day last week, or a charge of arson in that city. Many others serious charges are laid at the door of this band, but we are not at liberty to divulge them at present."

THE CATHOLIC COUNCIL AT ROME.—The Ami le la Religeon, (Paris,) of Oct. 19, says: The Catholic world is at present occupied with an event which is about to be accomplished at Rome. Bishops are proceeding from all parts of the earth towards the Eternal City .-From France, H. E., the Cardinal Gensset has already left for Rome, and has taken the way of Switzerland. The Bishop of Mans has arrived in Paris, on his way to the Holy City, on the Moshannon. Those who desire bills and is to leave in the course of the week. The Cardinal Archbishop of Mechlin has arrived in Paris. Several Irish Catholic prelates, and among them the Archbishops of Armagh and Dublin, are also at present in Paris, and on IF It is said that money is exceedingly their way for Rome. Ireland is the only Catholic country in the world from which more than two prelates have been invited by name. But we learn from Rome that a great number will take part, according to their rank, in the projected grand general assembly. The assembly will be preceded by private meetings, composed, we are told, solely of the prelates specially invited.

Horrible Affair in Philadelphia. - A wo-man is under arrest in Philadelphia, charged with nfanticide, having killed several of her children at the time of their birth. It seems that the mother of the slaughtered children, He said that while he believed in a "Higher whose name is Pamela Snyder, has lived for a number of years in the neighborhood of Rising Sun Village, in the Twenty-third Ward. She decide whether or not a given enactment was bors for families in the vicinity, and for a number of the rule of God. The Milwaukie ber of years has been known by the neighbors was in the habit of performing domestic lato lead a very disolute life. She was known to have given birth to several children, but they generally disappeared mysteriously, and rumors were rife that they had been foully dealt with. She has confessed to the Mayor to having, in succession, killed five of her children as soon as born, two by one father and three by another. The last child was born five days since, and was made away with like the others by being thrown into the sink. The first information of this horrible disclosure was given to the Mayor by an anonymous letter. The affair happened at Nicetown, in the upper part of the city.

SALE OF THE PUBLIC WORKS .- The Democratic Union, in noticing our anxiety to have early and efficient legislation for the sale of the Public Works, expresses itself willing to aid in the good work of accomplishing that object. It says: "We believe the Public Works should be sold. Judge Pollock, in one of his electioneering speeches, went so far as to say if they could not be sold they should be given away. This was going the length of the tether. and now that he is Governor, and his party claim a majority in the Legislature, we shall see what they will do. But, whether the works be sold or retained, we trust that the very first act of the Legislature will be the abolition of the Canal Board. Under their management there will always be extravagance and corruption, and we look forward with hope (we would like to say confidence) to the action of the next Legislature. Let the Canal Board be abolished, and the Public Works sold at a fair price."

RIOT IN WILLIAMSBURG .- A fearful election riot occurred at Williamsburg on the 7th inst. The particulars, as near as they could be ascertained at the time of our going to press, were as follows :- An Irishman was challenged by a Deputy Sheriff, a fight ensued when some eight or ten deputies who were on the opposite side of the street, rushed into the room and commenced using their clubs freely. The Irishmen, numbering some hundred, tore down fences, and secured clubs, stones, &c., and a general fight ensued, which lasted half an hour .-The news of the riot spread like wildfire. The fire alarm bells were rung, and hundreds of the citizens gathered in the streets; but few were nclined to go to the scene, when it was reported that many persons were lying dead in the streets, and bullets were flying in every direction. Some ten persons were badly injured, several of whom were not expected to live.
